

International

With roots going back for over 120 years, Walker Morris is one of the leading general law firms in the UK with a first class international reputation. We are committed to supporting our clients with the best possible English law advice and to working with our trusted global network of leading law firms to ensure you achieve your international goals.

Our approach successfully brings together lawyers who are regularly dealing with international commercial issues combined with many years' experience of advising global operations headquartered in the US, Far East and Asia as their European Counsel.

"...quality of service that makes it clear that they value your business. The speed and accuracy of their actions and advice save money and are enormously helpful in the decision-making process." - Chambers

HOW WE CAN HELP

Project managing complex transactions

Using our international project management experience as well as contacts in our network of overseas law firms, we led the legal advice required to enable our client – a US quoted company – to complete successfully the acquisition of a UK headquartered group of companies with operations in China, Singapore, United States, France and Holland.

Project managing and coordinating multi-jurisdictional advice for a leading global engineering client in relation to a major product recall.

"They are very responsive and really understand the operational aspects of the business. They go the extra mile to ensure we get what we need and are exceptionally hard-working and attentive to the client." – Chambers

Achieving results

Advising a major international coffee chain in relation to intra-group, international supply agreements for its key product supply and processing arrangements.

"Exemplary all round, with excellent in-depth knowledge and a strong commercial understanding." – Legal 500

Supporting business growth

Advising a Benelux manufacturer on English arbitration proceedings arising out of a contract and international letter of credit relating to a failed manufacturing facility in Kazakhstan.

"They have an integrated team that works very well together and provides excellent communication across the practice." – Chambers

Supporting you as a trusted adviser

Acting for a US based company alongside its US lawyers in injunctive action and a damages claim against a former employee where the interaction of US State law and English law was pivotal to the success of the action.

“The team at Walker Morris ‘understands the value of client relationships’, and is noted for the ‘quality of its work’” – Legal 500
